

Sweet Baby James

The Music of James Taylor

Sam's "Sweet Baby James" show is a masterful tribute to the music of James Taylor. Sam's uncanny resemblance to James, and his astonishing capture of Taylor's vocal and guitar styles leaves audiences feeling like they've just seen the legend himself and applauding for more, Sam's unique guitar style, soulful voice, original songs and interpretations of timeless classics have captivated thousands of audiences the world over. Musician, vocalist and composer, Sam's original music has been featured in television and theatrical productions around the globe. Sam received his degree in music composition from the prestigious D'Angelo School of Music, and has since worked with music industry greats such as Lou Rawls, Eric Burden, Peter, Paul, and Mary, Crosby Stills, and Nash, Mitch Rider, Aimee Mann, 10,000 Maniacs, and The Violent Femmes. He collaborated with Praz (Fugees, Wyclef Jean, Lauren Hill) on Dante Thomas's cover of Sam's original song FLY, the title cut of Dante's freshman Elektra Records release. Recently, Sam's original song "You're In My Heart" was featured on CBS Television's The Young and the Restless.

williamclare.com - 727-789-4594